Power Outage Follow up – applying for waiver to not add to school year. If not approved, will have to add the calendar. One idea to consider: add to calendar to account for possible power outages.

Costume Parade at 9am 10/31 – students can change out of their costumes after parade. No weapons, no scary costumes. Visitors must get a badge at office. Traffic will be heavier. Also a minimum day – 12:45 dismissal.

Book Fair open this week.

Muffins and Donuts on the 23rd before school.

Red Ribbon week 10/21 – 10/25 – Focus is on making healthy choices. No spirit colors or themes like in past years. Teachers will focus on teaching healthy choices. Mr. Libbon will focus on bully prevention.

1st Trimester conferences 11/18-11/22 – minimum day schedule. Dismissal 12:45. Most teachers will do sign up genies.

District Bond Info during March election in order to improve facilities. Permanent classroom. Two meetings held 10/23 6pm at PV Middle 10/28 6pm at Marina Village. Solicit to attend or schedule meeting to understand bond measure. Syd met w Cheryl Olson and other presidents = first phase would be focused on gym. Second phase would be replacing portables. Painting exterior. Cleaning carpet. Fixing the fields. Syd is inviting Cheryl to November PTC meeting to come and present to meeting to provide information. Rescue has not gone for a bond for 20+ years. PTC will help to get the word out in order to get the vote to passed.
